

Customer Bill of Rights

We the people of AA Electric, in order to create a World Class Company, do hereby establish and ordain our Customer Bill of Rights.

Our partners in business have the right to expect any transaction with AA Electric will be executed with a level of professional integrity above the established norm.

That AA Electric will provide only the highest quality, most technically advanced equipment available.

That AA Electric will provide this equipment and the technical expertise to apply it at the lowest acquisition cost possible.

That AA Electric will employ only knowledgeable, well-trained, courteous and caring people.

That AA Electric will respond to your needs expediently, accurately, thoroughly and consistently.

That we at AA Electric are your business partners and as such we are committed to assist you and contribute our experience and expertise to help you achieve your business objective.

